

Conrad Slabber (Associate Judge)

Conrad was born in Stellenbosch and graduated from the University of Stellenbosch in December 2007. After graduating, he worked at Beyerskloof winery for a number of years as well as completing some Napa vintages.

In March 2010 Conrad moved to Australia and worked at Cape Jaffa Wines based in Robe, SA. While working there obtained permanent residency and then Australian Citizenship.

In 2014 Conrad did vintage the move to Coonawarra Jack Winery, then completed 3 vintages with Riverland Vintners based in Monash (Riverland), SA. The plan was always to move back to the cool climate of Coonawarra and focus on the making of premium wines.

October 2016 saw Conrad back with Coonawarra Jack Winery and in 2017 he took over as head Winemaker.
